New Hampton Police are investigating a report of a person impersonating a police officer. A female resident stated that on 11/18/17 in the morning, she was pulled over on NH Route 132N in New Hampton by a new Silver Dodge Charger, completely unmarked except for two blue lights in the grill. There was no front license plate. She described the person who approached her as a male, approximately 6’1" or 6’2", average build, dark hair, with a "man bun". Approximate age about 25-35 years old.

She stated that her and her daughter, who was her passenger identified the subject as Caucasian male but had feminine qualities in his mannerism and his voice. He also had a little scruff type beard on his chin area. He was dressed in a black collared sweatshirt type shirt and gray pants.

During the interaction the “officer” did not ask for the drivers ID but did ask for the passenger’s ID as he believed her to be under 18 and required to have seat belt on.

Anyone with information please contact New Hampton PD 603-744-5423.
