VETERANS PARK ON THE PEMIGEWASSET

If you have driven over the bridge on NH Route 104 into Bristol lately you will have noticed a major difference in the Korean & Vietnam Garden site. A crew from the Town of New Hampton has been very busy doing a lot of hard labor excavating and preparing the area. Tom Bryant supplied his crew from "Landscapes by Tom" to build the 24 foot walkway and 12 foot diameter circle with the pavers donated by Michael Day, sales rep for Belgard Hardscapes. We hope you agree that it looks beautiful and is much more appropriate as a memorial for our Veterans.

Special thanks to the New Hampton Garden Club for organizing the effort for the flowers that have been planted, as the Veteran's Park looks terrific! They have added two lovely benches to sit and enjoy the view of the flag, memorial and the Pemigewasset River.

Thank you to each of you who made this possible.
